GENERAL RESTRICTIONS ON CREDITS

Generally, shareholders share of current year's tax credits may only be used to offset income tax imposed on S-Corporation income. The total of the jobs tax credit, headquarters credit, research and development skills credit, and the basic skills training and retraining credit cannot exceed 50% of the total income tax liability, and should be used first before other allowable credits. The child/ dependent care credit and the TANF credit can be used against 100% of income tax due. The export port charges credit cannot exceed 50% of the amount of income tax for the taxable year reduced by the sum of all other credits. The reforestation tax credit shall not exceed the lesser of $10,000 or the amount of income tax imposed upon the eligible owner for the taxable year reduced by the sum of all other credits allowable to the eligible owner. The ad valorem tax credit and gambling license fee credit may be claimed only in the year in which the ad valorem taxes and gambling license fees are paid. Any excess and/or unused ad valorem tax credit, gambling license fee credit, and TANF credit cannot be carried forward. Unused portions of the jobs tax credit, headquarters credit, research and development skills credit, child/dependent care credit, job training and retraining, and export port charges credit can be carried forward for up to 5 years. Any unused portion of the reforestation tax credit may be carried forward for succeeding tax years. The maximum reforestation tax credit that any eligible owner may utilize during their lifetime shall be $10,000 in the aggregate.
